Bring a Friend to Quilt Canada 2010

April 26 – May 1, 2010 – Calgary, AB
Telus Convention Centre

For the month of March only, CQA/ACC offers friends, members or non-members, the unique opportunity to experience a workshop at the Quilt Canada 2010 conference and show.

You and a friend can register for a workshop for the price of $250 plus GST. This is $131.25 per day class per person. Friends may choose separate workshops, but must register at the same time. Registrations are non-refundable. Check the CQA website for available workshops.

Each registration includes a $10 voucher for lunch and a $15 admission ticket, valid for another day's admission to the show.

This March promo also includes an opportunity to bring a friend and register for the Professional Development Conference. The bring a friend promo cost to attend the one and a half day conference is $246.75 per person, which includes a day with Mark Lipinski and lunch on Monday.

These are significant discounts for both you and your friend. Refer a friend today and enjoy the benefits of this offer. If you have already registered for a course, but refer a friend, you will have the class discount refunded to you after the conference. Call the CQA/ACC office today and register! 1.877.672.8777
