Areas of Volunteer Opportunities:

There will be volunteer opportunities in a number of areas, such as: pre-conference help (providing info at quilt shows), room set-up for ironing boards/class supplies, registration/information desk, quilt shows/galleries monitors, pre-banquet activities, hospitality, fashion show, Show and Share night, box lunch delivery, classroom angels, floaters, and others.

Duties may be adjusted at any time and will be discussed with the volunteer prior to the conference. We will try and match you to your preferred area of interest, however cannot guarantee this will be your assignment. Again, you will be contacted to discuss this volunteer work.

Please list your top 3 areas of interest for volunteering in order of preference.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Time and Date Available:

The conference runs from April 24 to May 01, 2010. Please list what dates and times you are available. Whether it is one shift or more than one, your help is much appreciated! Thank you.

Day of the Week and Date: (ie. Wednesday, April 28)

Time of Day: (morning/afternoon/evening)

Conference/Show Experience:

This request is to ensure the best matches possible for our volunteers. You do not have to have experience, however, any relevant experience would be helpful to our work in assigning duties to volunteers.

Please provide a brief list any experience you have with conferences or shows – related to quilting or other work:
