

2012 Quilt Canada, Halifax NS – “Seams Like Home”

Canadian Quilters' Association/Association Canadienne de la Courtepointe

MAY 29 to JUNE 2, 2012

SHOW AND SHARE Thursday, May 31st, 2012

Hello Quilters !

Plans for Quilt Canada 2012 in Halifax, Nova Scotia are well underway. Our Show and Share Fashion Show will take place on Thursday night at the Cunard Centre. Our delegates look forward to this event and we are hoping to show off your beautiful quilt, large or small, jacket or purse, etc. as you would in your home town guild.

A brief description of 75 words or less of your item will make the evening informative and interesting for the viewers. You may choose to include the name of your quilt, any story connected to it, when and why you made it or any other information of interest regarding your article. This information will be read out as your item is being shown. Your comments may be edited for length or clarity.

Upon your arrival at Registration at Dalhousie University, you will find in your registration package a letter with all the details regarding the Show, time to be there, where you will be seated, etc., and your ribbon or button to wear on the evening of the Show and Share. Your ribbon or button will identify you to the volunteers should you need assistance at the event.
